Competition Materials Now Available

What will you enter this year? The 2010 Industrial & Technology Education competition information is now available online. Follow the links or go to www.bigfun.org and click the "competitions" tab. The Competition Handbook contains all of the rules and requirements for the competition, a must-read item. The Quick Reference Guide gives you all of the divisions and dates at a glance. The deadline for all Entry Forms and fees is April 30, but it's never too early to enter your work.

Check out the two new divisions: Inventions and Green Technologies!

Media Show Goes Digital

All Media Show entries are to be submitted as digital images for judging. Only entries receiving 1st, 2nd, 3rd or Honorable Mention will need to be delivered to Cal Expo. The Media Show includes all Video and Photography entries. See the Competition Handbook for more details.

Invite Your Friends!

Forward the following link to your friends, colleagues, classmates and enemies and invite them to submit their projects this year. Who will have the bragging rights in 2010?

Special Recognition for Hand-Drawn Drafting

California Drafting and Survey Supply Inc. has generously expanded their donation to recognize the integral craft of hand-drawn drafting. In 2010 they will be awarding $50 gift certificates to the 1st place winners of Divisions 605, 610, 645 and 650, as well as a matching gift to their instructors for the purchase of classroom supplies. See the 2010 Competition Handbook for information on all of our Donors!
